Derwent Hill provides purposeful, enjoyable and safe outdoor education for children and young people, promoting their personal and social development and environmental awareness, and enrich their learning. This helps them to become successful learners, confident individuals and responsible citizens.

Outcomes from a Derwent Hill experience contribute towards being healthy, staying safe, enjoying and achieving, making a positive contribution and achieving economic well-being.

Beautifully situated in the heart of the Lake District, Derwent Hill Outdoor Education and Training Centre prepares people of all ages for new challenges and helps to promote personal confidence and catalyse team development.

Developed from an extensive Georgian House set in secluded gardens and woodland, Derwent Hill comprises two connected facilities: the Derwent Hill Outdoor Education Centre and the Derwent Hill Training Centre, each offering high standards of accommodation and catering.

Owned and managed by Sunderland City Council, the centre has been offering top-quality training and education courses for over 40 years, with all profits reinvested to provide outdoor learning opportunities for Sunderland children.

With its magnificent lake and mountain setting, Derwent Hill allows people to enjoy and achieve in a safe and welcoming environment. A combination of excellent facilities and location plus highly skilled and knowledgeable tutors make a stay at Derwent Hill a truly life-enhancing experience.

The Friends of Derwent Hill is a charity that:

- supports Derwent Hill in providing opportunities for children and young people
- raises funds to increase access to activities at Derwent Hill, particularly by disadvantaged children and young people
- raises funds to enhance the resources of Derwent Hill in order to enrich the experience of users fosters links between Derwent Hill and Sunderland schools and the wider community.
